

It is unfair that you limit any competition. Until XM Radio, rural people had no choice of what to listen to. We live in an area that receives no radio signal, AM or FM. So to limit our choice or bind the hands of XM would be completely unfair and a misuse of government time. Competition is good!